Educational for Teens

We spent 3 days in Washington, DC with a 12 year old and 15 year old. Out of the three days this was our favorite and during this day we noticed that the kids were the most engaged with the exhibits. Come along during our day of history and learning in the Nation’s Capital.

Newseum

We love the 4D movie, the 9/11 and Berlin Wall Exhibits. You could spend all day here. Your tickets are good for two days for a good reason.

Considered one of the most interactive museums in the world, the Newseum experience also traces the evolution of electronic communication from the birth of radio, to the technologies of the present and the future.

Lunch at The Source

In order to get in more time with the exhibits we ate lunch at The Source in the Newseum. The food section is developed and executed by Wolfgang Puck.
Walk to the Spy Museum, 5 Min Walk.

Next we did the Spy Museum, this only takes about 90 minutes. Afterwards we walked around downtown and looked for a restaurant. Lots of good options.

After dinner we walked to Union Station. This was a nice walk through downtown.
Monuments by Moonlight
One of the best things we ever did was to take a Monuments at Night Tour, which departs nightly from Union Station.

When the sun goes down, Washington turns into a different city, and Old Town Trolley Tours knows just the right way to show off the Capitol City at night! Enjoy a night of moonlight merriment aboard Old Town Trolley Tours. You haven’t seen Washington until you’ve seen it at night!
