

Unique Shopping

---

This itinerary will appeal to those to love to shop! Check out D.C.'s fantastic shopping along the streets, and within unique markets.

TRIP SUMMARY

---

Day 1

Take Metro to the Eastern Market station

9:00 AM Shop at Eastern Market

10:30 AM Take Metro to the NoMa/Galludet station

10:45 AM Visit Union Market

1:00 PM Take Metro to Dupont station

Walk to Georgetown

1:45 PM Shop Georgetown along M St. and Wisconsin Ave.

4:15 PM Take Metro to King St. - Old Town station in Alexandria, VA

4:45 PM Explore Old Town Alexandria

6:45 PM Dinner in Old Town

DAY 1

Arrival

Take Metro to the Eastern Market station

There are options for breakfast/coffee if you want to arrive earlier and eat there.

9:00 AM

1 hr 30 min

Shop at Eastern Market

Shop the the historical market (open since 1873) for plenty of unique food items, fresh produce, cheese, fish. On the weekend, year-round, there is an outdoor market with art, jewelry, textiles, you name it! Closed Mondays. 225 Seventh Street, SE Washington, DC 20003 <http://easternmarket-dc.org>

10:30 AM

Departure

15 min

Take Metro to the NoMa/Galludet station

10:45 AM

2 hr

Visit Union Market

Bustling Union Market is not to be missed. Food, shops, artists, and some big entrepreneurial spirit, be sure to check out this unique space. Plenty of lunch options

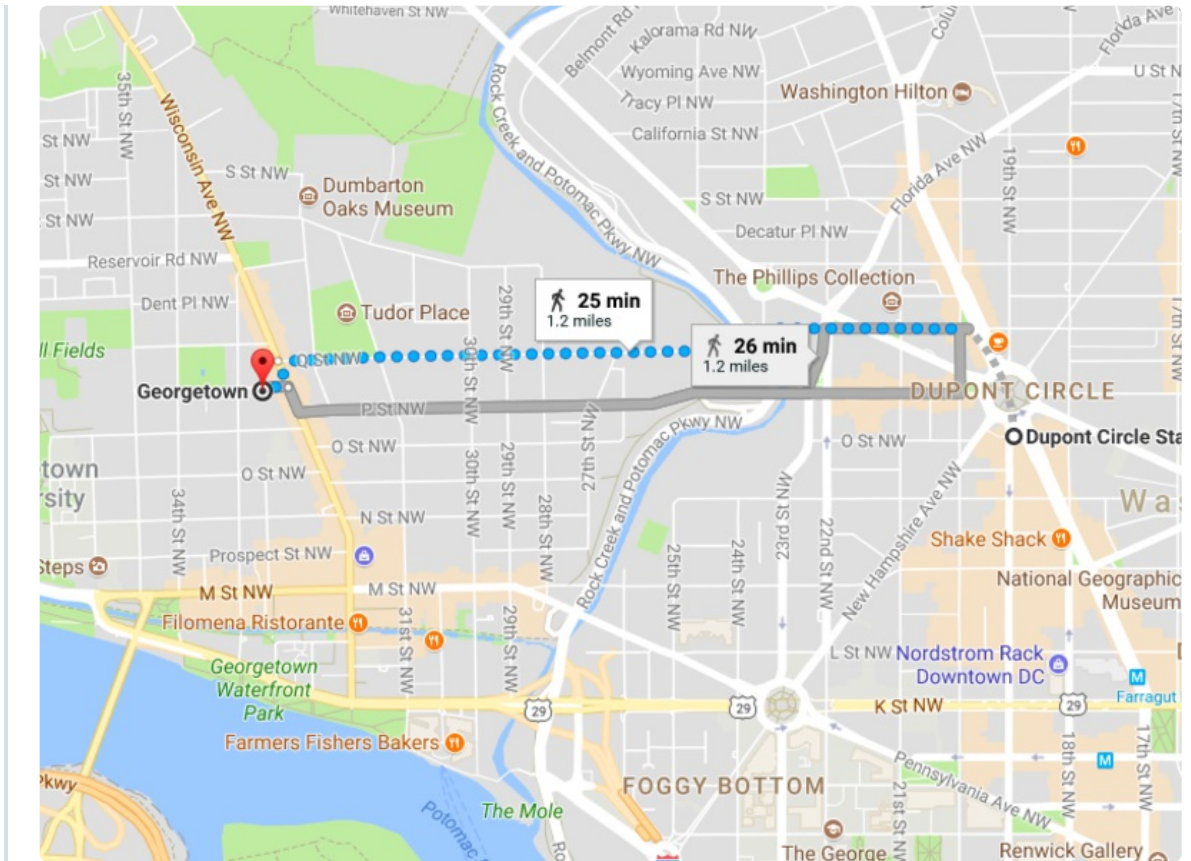

1:00 PM
Departure
15 min

Take Metro to Dupont station

Walk to Georgetown

1:45 PM

2 hr

Shop Georgetown along M St. and Wisconsin Ave.

Explore tiny boutiques, familiar stores, and plenty of places for food, coffee, or a drink

4:15 PM
Departure
30 min

Take Metro to King St. - Old Town station in Alexandria, VA

4:45 PM
2 hr

Explore Old Town Alexandria

This historical area (once home to George Washington) is a delight, with brick sidewalks, cobblestone streets, unique small boutiques, and plenty of restaurants. Be sure to walk down King Street for shopping and dining. Located on the river just South of Washington, D.C., there are some beautiful sights, as well as some museums and historical places to visit.

6:45 PM

Dinner in Old Town

You can find tons of really great restaurants in this area. We like Hank's Oyster Bar for seafood (1026 King St., Alexandria, Virginia, 22314 <http://hanksoysterbar.com/>) or Vermillion for a casual but upscale experience (1120 King St., Alexandria, Virginia, 22314, USA <http://www.vermilionrestaurant.com/>), or After dinner, walk the streets to find small bars, many which will have live music as part of Alexandria's fun nightlife.

